

Meet your HEAD TEACHER

My favourite thing about St Paul's:
The children

Fun fact:
I climbed Mount Snowdon when I was 6. I complained the whole way up and down apparently!

About me:
I have been a teacher for over 25 years and have worked at St Paul's for 20 of these. I have been Head Teacher here for 6 years. My educational passion is to ensure every child reaches their full potential!
